Discover how thoughts impact your reality. What's energetically in your field usually makes it way to your tissues. The challenge is that so much of what we are "sending" ourselves energetically and ultimately physically is held in our unconscious mind. How do we move what's in our subconscious mind to our consciousness mind? It happens first through awareness.

Learn to decode messages held in your subconscious mind or within your body. Identify how intuition speaks to you. When it comes to physical illnesses, the body uses sensations to alert our conscious mind. Explore a heightened "perceptive state" and feel more readily available to "receive" the body's clues such as dreams, goose bumps, a gut reaction or the 5 clairs.

What is the role of the body, compared to the mind and spirit? Develop a system to know "what" is broadcasting a message to you about your overall health and wellbeing. Is it: your body, your emotional self, mental self or spiritual self?

Receive a toolbox containing Chakra balancing and energizing audio support tools, dream analysis tips for healing, energetic practices and patterning for health and healing.

If you are currently managing your own disease or illness or if you work with clients and want more tools to assist them this course will assist in leading you and your clients on the road to optimal health and vitality.

Your Medical Intuition trainers are, Brian Daily, MD and Allyn Evans, Monroe Institute Trainer.
